HARD PRACTISE FOR BIG MATCH

Mallet Men Stage Hard Match Yesterday Afternoon, Preparing for Saturday

In a hard practise match yesterday afternoon the Kauai polo team for the irst time playing together at Kaplolani Park made an excellent record against the Ozhn team. The hardriding and long-driving of Malina, the studied work and wonderful backands of Gould and the teamwork of Rice and Spalding were pleasing to the spectators.

Oahu had a number of players out or practise, and in the period when Walter Dillingham, Harold Castle, Walter Macfarlane and Charles Lucas were opposing the Kanai team the work of Oahu was excellent. They have improved on their teamplay, and if Walter Dillingham lets himself out against the Maul and Army teams, after his liness, the championship may stay ight here in Oahu, Lucas Stars

In the play of yesterday the work of Charles Lucas was excellent. He worked into the combination nicely, and on one occasion made a save that looked like a certain goal. Lucas has improved greatly in his play, and in a short time is certain to be called upon for the championships. Arthur Rice played with the other team, in fact it was a continuel shift in the Oahu forces playing against the Kaual contingent. "Sonny" Macfarlane and Charley Lyman proved their polo ability by taking the ball down the field and making some pretty drives from a rest. Bob Shingle in one period made the most of the possibilities and broke into the scoring by a pretty

At present the Oahu team should be a slight favorite, but in their appearance here Gould and Malina have played such startling polo at times that the match is certain to be a hardfought one. Yesterday the Oahu team did not ride their best mounts, so a true line could not be obtained on the play. Many believed that Maui and Army had the best chance for the championship, but after the work of yesterday, and the possibility that Walter Dillingham will be at his best, the outlook for a championship for Oahu is rather rosy. One of the features of the day at the park was the work of Opiopio, the official

Those Brushers are getting to be a busy team. Not being satisfied with holding the Wrecking Crew to a 3 to 2 score, the squad will tackle the Chinese team at Athletic park on Sunday afternoon and will play for tun or marbles. Then they have issued a challenge to the 159th Company, which has been accepted.

Brush has arranged a series of cames at Athletic park on Saturday afternoons with the Fort Ruger team and he has announced that there yill he no admission charged. There will however be admission to the game on

The following players will be in the lineup against the Ruger squad: Dawson, c; Hanna, 3b; White, cf; Hol-comb, rf; Ralls, lf; McGarry, ss; Knight, Simmons and Johnson, p; Jackson, 1b; Zuber, 2b; Amama Robertson, c; Rowland, 1b; McDonald, cf; Lindsay, lf; Harrington, 2b.
